

The NJ DO NOT CALL is a life saver in our home. It gives our family time to connect, which is important considering both parents have to work in every household to keep their families head above water. When this was not available, we were bombarded by several phone calls between 6-9pm! Please do not take this away from hard working American families.